events of yesterday. At noon about 500 men and women are gathered about the lockup where the non-union colored men are under guard. They will be given a hearing before "Squire Oeffner this afternoon.

The strikers are in no pleasant frame of mind from the fact that some of their number were among the wounded. Among the wounded were: — McFadden, Pat Hickey and a boy whose name has not been learned. McFadden was shot in the right hand and the boy received a flesh wound in the leg.

the right hand and the boy received a flesh wound in the leg.

The injured have all been safely secreted and the closest investigation by the deputies has not availed in disclosing their hiding places.

The prisoners in the lockup are William Scott, Wm. Carey, Louis Thompson, Harris Holmes. Nelson Gaines, H. Wilson, J. Williams (all colored); James Jones, Pete Mahlister, Mike Barco and M. Sullivan, strikers. All are charged with aggravated riot. Quinn Schaffer and Thomas Young (colored) were atrested this morning charged with felonious assault, having fired upon the officers who were attempting to make arrests.

Two strikers named Conbon and Wall were also arrested this morning for assaulting nonunion men as thoy were going to their work. Sheriff McClary arrived here at noon and will attend the hearing at Squire Oeffner's office.

altogether probable that he will have a partner with him.

Those who keep track of the social life of the national capital have heard a deal about it. The Senator is going to marry. It is thought that the day is set, but that part has not got out.

The lady who it is reported has won the clever politician's heart is a southern beauty. Her name is Mrs. Fannie Iverson. Her home is Matlanta, Ga. Mrs. Iverson is a widow on the sanny side of thirty. She retains all of the beauty of young womanhood. Mrs. Iverson can hardly be termed a society woman in the ordinary acceptance of the term, though coming of an illustrious and wealthy family. Senator Hill's visit to Atlanta, the occasion of his first meeting Mrs. Iverson, was made in company with Gov. Flower and a number of other promisent politicians of New York to secure the world's fair for that city. A later visit, when the acquaintance was renewed and
